INTERPROFESSIONAL CONTINUING EDUCATION

The 'transformative value' of IPCE & Joint Accreditation for our organization can be seen in the following changes ...

- culture change – including/expanding the team in planning CE activities
- Streamlined workflow process in collaboration with professions
- Increased relevant discussions and engagement with the entire care team on the advancements in oncology medicine
- robust and diverse outcomes
- brings the whole healthcare team to the table to help deliver optimum patient care
- increased collaboration to develop interprofessional learning activities
- innovation in team-based training for high value care: the way we plan and create educational activities
- a holistic approach to patient-centered care due to improved communication pathways amongst health care team members and higher regard for each clinician's contribution to patient care
- the relationship with the social worker profession has strengthened teamwork practices and IPCE culture
- We are no longer implementing silo and compartmentalized education, we are producing all hands-on-deck, quality, and purposeful education that lead to better teamwork and improved outcomes.
